

ARE THERE ANY COSTS FOR LEGAL SERVICES?

Under our LSC program there is no charge to clients for legal services. However, clients are responsible for paying fees associated with their case. Examples of fees include those for filing documents in court, publishing notices, or recording documents with government agencies. If a client is unable to pay these fees, we can work with the client to determine if the fees can be waived.

About GLSC

Guam Legal Services Corporation (GLSC) is a private non-profit corporation that is run by a board of directors consisting of attorneys and program-eligible persons. GLSC is not a government agency. GLSC began servicing the low-income community of Guam in 1981. Since then, we have expanded our programs to provide legal assistance to victims of domestic violence and individuals with disabilities.

WHAT IS THE LEGAL SERVICES CORPORATION?

The Legal Services Corporation (LSC) is a private, non-profit corporation established by the federal government to ensure equal access to justice under the law for all Americans by providing legal assistance to those who otherwise would be unable to afford it. LSC was created in 1974 and is funded through congressional appropriation.

Mission Statement

The mission of Legal Services Corporation is to promote equal access to the courts by making grants to provide high quality civil legal assistance for those who would be otherwise unable to afford legal counsel.

ELIGIBILITY

The Legal Services Program at GLSC requires that eligible individuals be of low income with limited assets. Other factors considered when determining eligibility:

- Whether you are a Guam resident
- Whether you are a U.S. citizen or permanent resident alien
- Whether you are citizen of the Freely Associated States
- The type of legal service you are requesting
- Whether a conflict of interest applies to your case

GLSC does not provide representation in criminal matters or in matters where the client is seeking monetary compensation.
